LOCAL MATTERS.

CONSERVATIVE CAUCUS YESTERDAY MORN-NG .- A caucus of the Conservative members of the General Assembly was held in the hall of the House of Delegates yesterday morning, Senator W. D. Quesenberry, of stated, Judge Ould offered the following : Resolved, That the Governor be requested lature for the purpose of reconsidering it. Messrs. Ould and Kirkpatrick spoke in favor of the resolution, while Messrs, Stuart, Popham, and Winn expressed their sentiments against it. Judge Thomas said that one of the largest merchants of Richmond had told him that while the tax imposed upon him was very heavy, yet he was willing to bear it, and in the end believed it would do him good in the return he would credit. From the beginning to the end of the caucus, which lasted a little more than an hour, motions to adjourn were continually being made. At about 11:30 one prevailed, and the caucus adjourned without taking any positive action upon Judge Ould's resolu-

receive from the restoration of the State's

Half an hour afterwards the tax bill re ceived the signature of Governor Kemper, and it is therefore now in force.

FEES OF SHERIFFS AND SERGEANTS .- Senate bill in relation to the pay of sheriffs and sergeants, after having passed the Senate by a vote of 34 to 2, passed the House of Delegates yesterday by a vote of 94 to 5. It allows these officers the same fees for Commonwealth's services as are now allowed to constables, as follows: For summoning a witness, 20 cents; for summoning any accused in a criminal proceeding, 50 cents; for executing search warrant, 50 cents; and for making an arrest in any case (other than felony, for which $1 is now paid), 50 cents; provided that in case of conviction (except for felony) the Commonwealth shall not be liable for these fees. For attending on any circuit court (except the Circuit Court of Richmond) $2 per day to each principal officer, and same to each deputy required to attend by the court.

These officers have never been paid before by the State for any of these services, except for attending upon the circuit courts, for which they received not exceeding $20 per annum. The per diem is intended to equalize the matter as between the large and small counties. It was contended by Mr. Smith, of Nelson, the author of the bill, that the State since 1870 has saved on an average each year near $90,000 in the way of commission on the collection of its revenues, and the sheriffs, by the change of the mode of collecting the revenue through the county and city treasurers, have been deprived of this sum ($90,000) annually.

It is estimated that this bill will be a draft upon the treasury to the amount of $20,000.

CHARTERS OF RICHMOND COMPANIES AP PROVED .- The Governor has approved a bill incorporating Messrs. W. B. Isaacs, William G. Taylor, John C. Williams, John Enders, Palmer, Hartsook & Co., Simpson, Bass & Co., George S. Palmer, M. Hessberg, Louis J. Bossieux, W. L. Fleming, W. H. Palmer D. J. Hartsook, B. H. Nash, and others by the name of the Bank of Commerce. The capital stock is to be not less than $50,000 nor more than $1,000,000, divided into shares of $25 each. This act of incorporation will become the charter of the Bank of Commerce, in lieu of the one under which it is now ope-holders in any general or special meeting. Messrs. Jsseph L. Carrington, Franklin Stearns, H. Coalter Cabell, B. T. Johnson, Thomas Potts, Z. W. Pickrell, John B. Davis, and others, are incorporated under the name of the Richmond Hotel Company, by a bill which has been approved by the Governor. The capital stock is to be not less than $100,000, and not more than $560,000, divided into shares of $100 each. Authority is given Messrs. Robert Beverly, W. B. Matthews, Bradley T. Johnson, W. B. Isaacs, George C. Wedderburn, John Enders, John B. Davis, Joseph Hall, Isaac Davenport, Jr., John T. Ford, and others, to organize the Richmond Hotel and Dramatic Company, with a capital stock of not less than $75,000 nor more than $500,000. The shares are to be of the value of $75 each. The charter of Hollywood Cemetery Com pany has been so amended as to allow it to 43.33; the mean temperature for the corresponding month last year was 46,42. The coldest days were the 13th and 29th; and on the 11th, 12th, and 13th there were heavy frosts. The warmest (as indicated by the mercury) was the 21st.

The rain-fall for the month was 7.02 inches; for the corresponding month in

PERSONAL .- Rev. A. E. Dickinson, Rev. J. . Burrows, D. D., and Rev. H. A. Tupper, D. D., of this city, have gone to Jefferson, Texas, to attend the Southern Baptist Convention. The condition of Colonel Joseph Mayo, Jr., late State Treasurer, since his removal to the Staunton Lunatic Asylum, is said to grow worse. He has remained in a continual stupor, and there are evidences of a soften-of Liverpool, is in the city, and is stopping at the Exchange Hotel. Ex-Governor Gilbert C. Walker and George A. Hundley, Esq., senator from the Buckingham district, are about to commence the practice of law together in this city. COURT STATISTICS .- Judge Guigon's court has been in session during the entire month and tried and disposed of at this term twenty one felony cases, one misdemeanor case, and three cases of bastardy. There is not now pending in the Hustings Court a single criminal case upon the docket. CITY COMMITTEE .- The City Central Conservative Committee will meet at headquarters, Ninth street, this evening at 71 o'clock. As important business in connection with the coming campaign will be brought before the committee, every member is expected to be present. SENTENCED .- Philip Clarke (negro), convicted of burglary, was yesterday morning sentenced by Judge Guigon to imprisonment in the penitentiary for five years. UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, THURS-DAY-Judge Robert W. Hughes presiding. The following business was transacted: In the matter of Edith Jones, bankrupt Ordered that the assignee report costs with a view to a dismission.

In the matter of Thomas J. Turpiu, banksales of a tract of land of 300 acres, belonging to said bankrupt, and the interest of bankrupt in a tract of 200 acres, be not confirmed, as the sales were smally attended and the terms have not been complied with. In the matter of Young J. Clements, bankrupt: Upon motion of Gunther & Rodwald, creditors, order made for $500 exemption on 27th April set aside. Case set for new hearing on 1st June. The following rule of practice was adopted by the court:

"Ordered that assignees in bankruptcy suing at law in this court upon choses in action surrendered by bankrupts, may proceed by notice and motion, according to the provisions of the 6th, 7th, to withhold his signature to the general tax and 8th sections of the 163d chap-bill and call an extra session of the Legisla-ter of the Code of Virginia, as far as the same are applicable, and judgment may be obtained in such proceedings thirty days after service of notice of action, and twenty days after the return of service of the same to the clerk's office; and the clerks are in structed to keep motion and rule dockets for such proceedings."

> SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS-THE COURT TO MEET IN RICHMOND AGAIN ON 15TH NOVEM-BER .- In the Supreme Court of Appeals yes terday the following business was transacted Cheek et als. vs. White, &c. Petition for rehearing filed and time taken by the court to consider it.

Humphreys, &c., vs. The City of Norfolk Petition for rehearing denied.

The petition of William Caldwell for a writ of mandamus to require Judge A. D. Dickinson, Judge of the Circuit Court of Charlotte county, to issue to him a certificate of election as treasurer of said county, was denied, the court being unanimously of opinion that the judgments of the circuit courts in cases of contested election, under our statute, are final and cannot be reviewed in any way by this court.

Rice vs. Commonwealth. Petition for writ of error and supersedeas to a judgment No. 313 Adams street, Richmond, Va.; M. F. of the Circuit Court of Loudoun county, B., Dispatch office ; Mr. William H. Ren-Refused by all the judges. Bethell vs. Gregg and als. Appeal refused by all the judges to a decree of the Circuit Court of Danville. The county of Albemarle vs. Miller's executor and als, and Miller's executor vs. The County of Albemarle and als. Appeals dismissed by the appellants, with leave to reinstate them if the court shall hereafter grant a rehearing in the case of "Kinnard and als vs. Miller's executor and als," decided by it in the last fifteen days of the present term.

The court then adjourned till the 15th day of November next, having disposed of more cases than at any previous session. There is no body of men which works more faithfully or more continually than our Court of Appeals. It goes to Wytheville on the 16th of June, and to Staunton on the 10th of September. It expects to decide most of the cases from this court now submitted to it at Wytheville, and the decrees will be certified as the decisions are rendered to the clerk here.

CHANCERY COURT OF RICHMOND, THURS DAY .- The following business was disposed
